HER SUFFERING IS OVER

Mrs. Louisa Fagergren Dies After Long Illness
Funeral Tomorrow

Mrs. Louisa Fagergren of 824 South Fifth East Street this city, died at her home late Saturday night from a weakness induced by a long illness. She had been a great physical sufferer and she hailed the release from pain that death offered her.

Mrs. Fagergren was born in Sweden 56 years ago and emigrated to Utah with her husband and children in 1880. She was the mother of fourteen children eleven of whom are now living. Her husband who also survives her, is engaged in business in Bingham.

The funeral will be held from the Second Ward meeting house Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
